

DEFINING MOMENTS
THE GILDED AGE

Diane Telgen

*Omni*graphics

155 W. Congress, Suite 200
Detroit, MI 48226

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	.ix
How to Use This Book	.xiii
Research Topics for Defining Moments: The Gilded Age	.xv

NARRATIVE OVERVIEW

Prologue	3
Chapter One: America's Postwar Expansion	9
Chapter Two: The Rise of the Robber Barons	23
Chapter Three: Captains of Industry	39
Chapter Four: Gilded Age Politics, Reformers, and Regulators	55
Chapter Five: The Rise of Labor	71
Chapter Six: The 1890s: A Decade of Upheaval	89
Chapter Seven: Legacy of the Gilded Age	105

BIOGRAPHIES

William Jennings Bryan (1860-1925) Populist Leader and Three-time Democratic Candidate for President	125
Andrew Carnegie (1835-1919) Steel Magnate and Philanthropist	129
Grover Cleveland (1837-1908) Democratic President of the United States	133

Eugene V. Debs (1855-1926)	137
Founder of the American Railway Union and the Socialist Party of America
Samuel Gompers (1850-1924)	141
Founder and President of the American Federation of Labor
Jay Gould (1836-1892)	144
Gilded Age Financier and Railroad Owner
Mary Elizabeth Lease (1853-1933)	147
Reformist Speaker and Politician
J. P. Morgan (1837-1913)	150
Leading Banker and Financier of the Gilded Age
Terence V. Powderly (1849-1924)	153
Leader of the Knights of Labor
John D. Rockefeller (1839-1937)	156
Founder of the Standard Oil Company

PRIMARY SOURCES

Mark Twain Describes the Get-Rich-Quick Mining Culture	163
The Glitter of Gilded Age High Society	166
Exposing the Price-Fixing Schemes of the “Lords of Industry”	170
An Anarchist Protests His Haymarket Death Sentence	174
Andrew Carnegie’s “Gospel of Wealth”	177
“The Problem of the Children” in New York City	183
The Sherman Antitrust Act	186
The Populists Articulate Their Principles	189
William Jennings Bryan’s “Cross of Gold” Speech	192
A Second Gilded Age? The Income Gap Says Yes	197
A New Gilded Age? Living Standards Say No	203

Table of Contents

Important People, Places, and Terms	209
Chronology	229
Sources for Further Study	237
Bibliography	239
Photo and Illustration Credits	243
Index	245