Online Resources

Users need quality resources 24/7, whether at school, at the library, at home, or on the go. They need unlimited access from computers, tablets, and smart phones—anywhere with an Internet connection. These resources offer the high-quality materials they need:

The Teen Resource Center provides today's information-hungry teenagers with the practical reference content they crave. Engaging, easy-to-access topics are grouped into the three broad areas of Health, Financial Literacy, and Personal Growth. In addition to authoritative coverage of the top issues facing teens today, the Teen Resource Center serves up links to support groups, hotlines, and more, plus a searchable database of frequently asked questions complete with helpful, real-world answers.

Health Reference Series Online provides online access to the Health Reference Series and Teen Health Series collections. It includes all the features of the print volumes plus a clean, intuitive interface with a powerful natural-language search, individual user accounts and handy research tools including citation generation. With on-site and remote access users can access this valuable resource however and whenever they want on multiple devices including tablets and smart phones.
